By Sarah Gonzales

The Gaming Law Section of the Nevada State Bar and William S. Boyd School of Law are pleased to announce the selection of Morgana McCoy as a recipient of the GLS Scholarship.

Morgana Leite Vieira McCoy (2021-2022 recipient), completed her L.L.B in Law at Centro Universitário Newton Paiva in Minas Gerais, Brazil in 2017. During law school, she worked for ArcelorMittal Brazil S.A, a multinational company. After passing the bar exam, she practiced family and civil law in Brazil prior to immigrating to the U.S. In the United States she volunteered as a legal interpreter translating legal documents and news reports from Spanish and Portuguese to English in San Francisco, CA. She joins the LL.M program this Fall to further her professional development with the intention of working in gaming regulation and innovation worldwide.

The LL.M. in Gaming Law and Regulation enrolled its first class in August 2015, and has enrolled recent graduates and practitioners from across the United States and around the globe. Graduates of the program have gone on to work with the Nevada Gaming Control Board, William Hill, Aristocrat, BetMGM, CG Technology, New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement, New Hampshire Lottery, and more.
