LETTER OF REPRIMAND

Andrew Wasielewski, Esq.
Nevada Bar No. 6161
8275 S. Eastern Avenue, Suite 200-218
Las Vegas, NV 89123

RE: Grievance No. OBC21-0482 / Lyubov Abato

Dear Mr. Wasielewski:

The State Bar, through the Office of Bar Counsel, sent Letters of Investigation in connection with a grievance on May 17 and June 22, 2021, which directed you to provide a response in disciplinary file No. OBC21-0482.

You received the Letters of Investigation and subsequently requested extensions of time to respond to them. Despite having received the extensions, you did not provide a response as directed by the Office of Bar Counsel and required by RPC 8.1(b).

Pursuant to ABA Standard 7.3:

Reprimand is generally appropriate when a lawyer negligently engages in misconduct that is in violation of a duty owed as a professional, and causes injury or potential injury to a client, the public or the legal system.

Although it appears that you intended to respond to the grievance, you negligently failed to respond to lawful demands for information from a disciplinary authority, the Office of Bar Counsel, and thereby violated RPC 8.1(b). This violation caused injury to the legal system because the disciplinary process was required to proceed with a matter that would have otherwise been dismissed. A self-regulating profession cannot be successful if the persons to be regulated fail to timely participate in the regulatory matters.

In mitigation, you apparently were experiencing medical issues last year and were ill during this period.
