BAR COUNSEL

BOARD REPORT

June 2024

DISCIPLINE STATISTICS

- The OBC aims to keep active cases under 250. This allows for about half (125) in investigations and half (125) split between intake, screening, and hearing.
- The OBC works efficiently with active cases below 250. We are within that range.
- The OBC's active case load dropped during the first quarter of 2024 and evened out during the second quarter.

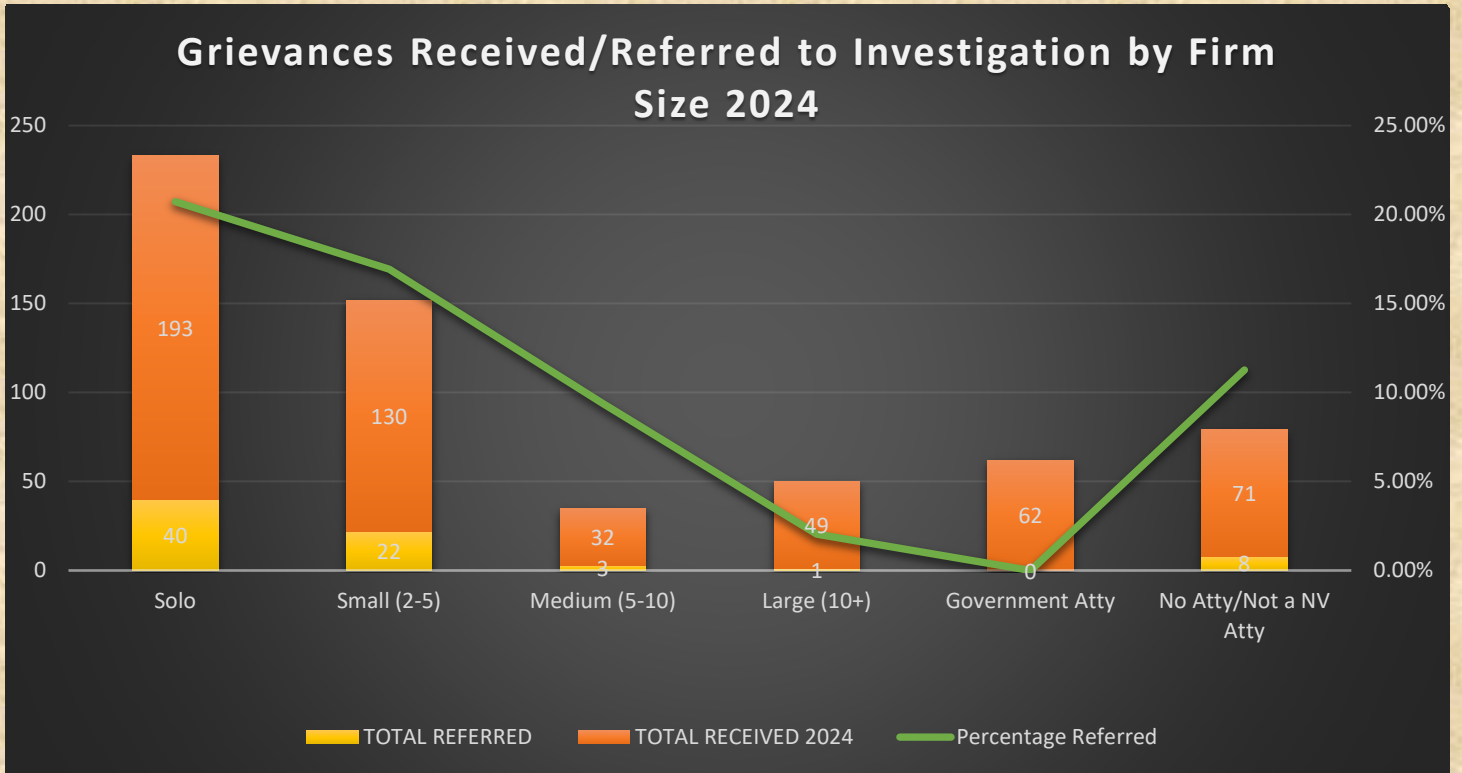

INTAKE

	New Grievances	Grievances Reviewed	Grievances Pending	Over 90 Days
End of 2023			52	0
January	106	112	46	0
February	79	91	34	0
March	95	94	35	0
April	124	113	41	0
May	133	142	34	0

GOAL – Review grievances within 90 days and have no more than 100 pending at any time.

- Intake staff processed files efficiently to keep pending grievances well below 100.
- New grievances in 2024 have varied significantly. Since February’s low, new grievances have increased each month.
- The pending matters include those tasked for initial review by intake counsel, those waiting for an attorney’s response to an intake letter of investigation, and those waiting for more information from the grievant.

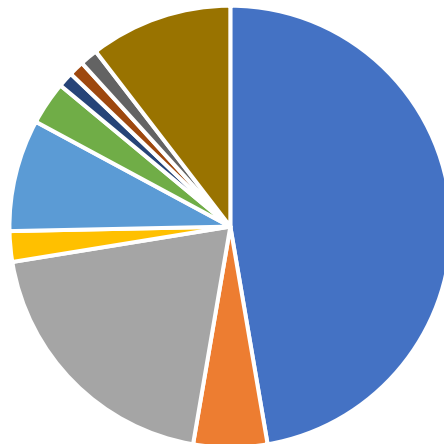

GRIEVANCE DEMOGRAPHICS

- Of the 537 grievances the OBC has processed through June 1, 2024, 60% named solo and small firm attorneys, with the remainder split between attorneys at medium to large firms, government attorneys, or grievances that do not name a Nevada-licensed attorney.¹ This percentage split has been consistent since we began tracking the data in 2023.
- Of the 74 grievances referred to investigation through June 1, 2024, 62 (84%) related to solo or small firm attorneys.
- Grievances referred to investigation on solo or small firm attorneys remains consistent at around 20% of total grievances received in those categories.

¹ The State Bar does not collect information on firm size from its members. The OBC is collecting this data using information available from the Internet and Membership Services, so there is a margin of error.

Where have grievances come from 2024?

■ Client ■ Client's Relative ■ Opposing Party ■ Opposing Counsel ■ Concerned Citizen

- Of the 74 grievances referred to investigation in 2024, lack of diligence and communication continue to be the most common issues raised – with 66% alleging issues under RPC 1.3 (Diligence) and 50% alleging issues under RPC 1.4 (Communication).

INVESTIGATION
	New Invest.	Invest. Completed	Invest. Pending	Over 6 Months
End of 2023			86	2
January	18	18	86	12
February	16	18	84	11
March	9	22	71	6
April	23	18	76	3
May	18	13	81	4

GOAL – Investigate grievances within 6 months and keep active investigations under 125.

- Six-month investigations keep an efficient balance in the active caseload.
- Pending investigations continue to remain below 125. After trending down in the first quarter, pending investigations are up slightly in correlation to the higher number of grievances received.
- Investigators have reduced the number of investigations over 6 months. They will continue to prioritize and complete these investigations.
- These prolonged investigations are complex cases. Complex cases address grievances of misappropriation, fraud, or criminal conduct, which can require more time.

HEARINGS

	New Filings	Hearings Resolved	Hearings Pending	Over 8 Months
End of 2022			26 (33 files)	1
End of 2023			17 (35 files)	3
January	4	5	16 (21 files)	3
February	9	2	23 (28 files)	4
March	7	1	29 (36 files)	4
April	1	5	25 (27 files)	3
May	5	3	27 (29 files)	3

GOAL – Prosecute 80 % of disciplinary hearings within 8 months

- After a screening panel approves a formal hearing, Bar Counsel files a complaint and the case moves into the prosecution/pending hearing stage.
- The number of pending hearings as of June 1, 2024, is up over 50% since January.
- The OBC presses for a hearing within 8 months whenever possible. It has 3 cases pending over 8 months. The delays in these 3 cases have been out of the OBC’s control in large part.
- One of the cases over 8 months is scheduled for a 3-day hearing to begin on June 17, 2024. The respondent filed extensive pre-hearing motions. The Supreme Court remanded the second matter which is set for re-hearing on June 26, 2024. The third involves an incarcerated respondent, which has complicated the hearing process.
- These cases make up 11% of the total hearing cases. So, the OBC is within its goal.

OTHER OBC ACTIVITIES

- The OBC monitors 43 attorneys: 12 in diversion, 21 on probation, and 10 conditional admittees.
- OBC attorneys have answered approximately 475 ethics calls this year. Callers seek guidance on a wide range of ethical concerns. The most prevalent inquiries relate to the unauthorized practice of law (RPC 5.5), confidentiality of information (RPC 1.6) and conflicts of interest (RPCs 1.7 and 1.8).
