ABOUT NEVADA LAWYER

NEVADA LAWYER

YOUR CONNECTION TO NEVADA'S LEGAL COMMUNITY

Nevada Lawyer is the only statewide legal journal in the state of Nevada. The State Bar of Nevada has more than 11,000 members. Each year, Nevada's bar typically gains between 200 and 400 new admittees. Every member of the State Bar of Nevada - every licensed Nevada attorney - gets a subscription with his or her bar card. There is no other way for advertisers to so easily enter the homes and offices of every lawyer in the state.

Nevada Lawyer is published 12 times a year and goes out each month to every practicing attorney, judge and bar association in Nevada, providing an advertising base that is educated, informed and affluent. There is a reason our advertisers, from law firms to high-end strip properties, keep coming back to Nevada Lawyer. Make this your year to join them, by taking advantage of our business-card sized ad, at a price designed for those on a tighter budget or those just exploring the world of display advertising for the first time.

2024 EDITORIAL CALENDAR

NEVADA LAWYER SUBMISSION DEADLINES

Each issue of Nevada Lawyer is published within the first week of the month. The deadline for unsolicited articles is 12 weeks prior to the publication date, however, as our issue editors work far in advance to find submissions for their issues, it is recommended that an author discuss possible submissions as far in advance of publication as possible.

More submission guidelines are available at: www.nvbar.org/nevada-lawyer-magazine/advertising

NEVADA LAWYER SUBMISSIONS

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR ARTICLE

Send an inquiry, article summary or complete article to NVLAWYER@NVBAR.ORG.

Articles should be submitted as either a MS Word (.docx), WordPerfect (.wpd) or Rich Text (.rtf) document.

Articles WILL NOT be accepted in PDF format, and submissions should not contain layout or design features other than the most basic headings and subheadings. If you wish to include charts or photos, they should be submitted separately as PDF or .jpg files.

All submissions are reviewed by the editor and forwarded to the Editorial Board for consideration. The editor may retain accepted articles for up to six months for possible use. Articles not used within that time are discarded. Accepted articles are not guaranteed publication in any particular issue. Space and other considerations occasionally require postponing publication of an article.

ARTICLE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- 1. We welcome both substantive law articles and features. Substantive law articles are research-based and may or may not include endnotes. Features are less formal articles dealing with timely issues in the law, providing how-to information or profiling a Nevada attorney.
- 2. Articles run between one and three actual magazine pages. For editing purposes, they should be between 6-10 typed, double-spaced, 8.5" x 11" pages, including endnotes (10 max). The length of the article should be 1,500 words or fewer, unless agreed upon in advance with the editorial staff.
- 3. Style - The general text and format of articles should be consistent with AP (Associated Press) style. Legal citations should be consistent with "A Uniform System of Citation" (Blue Book), Harvard Law Review Association, except that (a) citations to published Nevada cases should reference the Nevada Reports without a parallel citation to the Pacific Reporter, and (b) the Nevada Revised Statutes may be should be abbreviated as "NRS" (with no periods and no section symbol).
- 4. Endnotes - Collect all notes at the end of the article - DO NOT EMBED OR USE AUTO FUNCTIONS. Keep notes short; articles should contain fewer than 10 endnotes, inclusive of citations.
- 5. Subheadings - You are encouraged to use appropriate subheadings to break up lengthy articles.
- 6. Article rights - Authors will be asked to sign an agreement limiting the terms of the reuse and imposing guidelines on the dissemination of the submission.
- 7. Editorial Changes - The editor reserves the right to make editorial changes; authors will not be provided with page proofs prior to publication.
- 8. Biographical Notes - Please include a brief biographical note (two to four lines), and include a high-res color photo.
- 9. Photos - Accompanying photographs are welcome and will be used at the discretion of the editor. Photos must include captions. Digital photos must be submitted in either .jpg or .tif format with a minimum resolution of 600 DPI.
